DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

Welcome to the 22nd Annual Young At Art Exhibit Awards Ceremony at the East Hawaii Cultural Center (EHCC). Today, we will be entertained with live music by the Kamehameha School Keiki Choir. The Keiki Choir will be followed by our Awards Ceremony where we will honor the winners of this juried exhibit. After the Ceremony will be the much anticipated Grand Opening of the 22nd Annual Young At Art Exhibit. The exhibit will be open and free to the public from Monday through Saturday from 10:am to 4:00pm.

We would like to thank everyone for coming out to support our talented Keiki. Young At Art is especially important because it empowers our Keiki and fosters their sense of self, through the art process. Your support reinforces the importance of art in their lives.

Young at Art is held every March at the EHCC in the celebration of the National Youth Arts Month. Through this event, EHCC encourages the creation of art in schools by offering incentives to teachers, parents and students through awards of cash and art supplies.

The judges had the difficult but rewarding task of selecting the best from so many entries. This year's judges were Kay Sakai, Board Chairperson, professional artist and sculptor, Trudee Siemann, photographer and painter, and Henry Bianchini, well established artist and sculptor. The judges had to review over 500 entries and over 200 artworks were selected. Art was submitted from public, charter, private and home schools from throughout our island.

Teachers, volunteers, community resource persons and the EHCC contributed this worthy exhibition. Through collaboration with the State Department of Education, EHCC disperses information and collects the artwork from all participating children. EHCC raises all funds for awards and support for this exhibition from many sources including businesses, individuals and foundations. Mahalo to all of you who made this event a success.

The Artwork used for the 2010 invitations, flyers, and programs is from the creative hands of Kalyn Brufodt and Karly Watts, 10th and 12th grade student at Keaau High School, whose teacher is Mrs. Anne Lavasseur- Mullen. The acrylic paint work is titled " Petals In The Wind ".

Thank you again for supporting our Keiki's creative efforts. Enjoy the entertainment and please help us pass the word to your friends and family about this wonderful exhibit which will be open and free to the public through Thursday, March 25, 2010..
